

Nutritional additives for livestock feed

Urea

Urea is a source of non-protein nitrogen (NPN) containing 46% nitrogen. This is equivalent to a protein concentration of 281% ( $N \times 6.2545\%$ ) and can be used successfully to increase the overall protein in the livestock feed ration. Urea  $CO(NH_2)_2$  contains 46% nitrogen (N).

Delivery:

Polypropylene fabric sacks with polyethylene inner lining, of 25 kg or 50 kg and in big bags (1 ton).

Click here to view the product page

