

Gardening and landscaping

Red

Red is a compact macro-crystalline limestone material that is excavated in the Galilee region of Israel. It has a red color with light spots. It is unique in its reddish color that is uncommon in Israel.

The raw material undergoes a rigorous screening process to obtain a uniform color and exclude foreign substances.

This is a very hard stone with low absorbency, which makes it suitable for granulite coating of surfaces and walls, and for surfacing soils and trails.

Size (in mm)	16-25	9-16	2.5-9	1.4-2.5
--------------	-------	------	-------	---------